UNCONQUERED

“A memoir of triumph over adversity and wounds no sword can make”

The true story of two elite soldiers severely injured in the line of duty. “Unconquered” charts their inspiring journey from the depths of despair to break the chains of life changing injuries to rise again.

SYNOPSIS

Unconquered is a twenty eight minute drama documentary that tells the true story of Corporal Mark “Dot” Perkins and Sergeant Dave “Dogs” Dewar. It begins from the moment of their tragic accidents and follows their personal battle to defeat their demons and overcome life changing injuries to find a way back.

A human story of triumph over adversity, filled with heart, humour and the unbreakable bond of brotherhood.

DIRECTORS STATEMENT

From the moment we decided to make “Unconquered” I was on my honor. Not just to Dot and Dave, but to those whose every day is a battle to shed the chains of impediment.

It has been the driving force for half my life. I cannot count the blessing I have received whilst striving to bring light to those less fortunate.

Telling the truth of Dot and Dave’s story haunted me. These were elite, battle hardened soldiers, part of a brotherhood that few may enter. They honoured me with their stories and from then I had to weave a concise memoir that captured the whole 360 in just twenty four minutes.

Even as shooting began I felt I was not getting to the heart of their story. It was early days but I was still an outsider walking on eggshells. As the shoot progressed they began to trust me, at least a little. It was the second day, we were sharing a soup in that freezing hanger and I went for it... “How deep can I go?” Dot and Dave were puzzled... “How much of the dark stuff can I tell?” They just gave me the thousand yard stare... and said “ Go for it!”
